Article 6. Payment of tuition fees for a foreign language program by citizens of foreign countries who need a study visa

1. A citizen of a foreign country, together with the presentation of mandatory documents, pays the fee determined for the support service of legal stay in Georgia in the amount of $300, or the equivalent of this amount in GEL, at the currency exchange rate established by the National Bank of Georgia on the day of payment;
2. The amount specified in paragraph 1 of this article can be returned based on the applicant's application, before the start of the visa procedures. A refund commission fee will be deducted from the total refund amount. Otherwise, the fee specified for the support service is non-refundable;
3. The full tuition fee must be paid before the applicant's visa procedures begin;
4. In case of payment of the tuition fee in several parts, the payment terms are determined by the annex to the contract;
5. The paid tuition fee or its part is not subject to return, unless the person refused to cross the state border;
6. The fee determined for the support service will not be included in the tuition fee.
